Here are the Terms & Conditions to which you are agreeing when you become a "Staying Positive (in a Freaked-Out World) Society" member:

By clicking through to join the Staying Positive Society, I acknowledge and accept the following "Terms & Conditions":

- I understand that I will have access to all member benefits during the period of my "Staying Positive (in a Freaked-Out World) Society" monthly membership.
- I agree to have my credit card charged every 30 days beginning on the day I joined since I am a monthly member. The credit card charge will show "Emphasis on Excellence, Inc."
- I know that if I ever want to change my membership from monthly to yearly or if I choose to discontinue my membership in the "Staying Positive Society," I will notify Meggin's productivity assistant, Lisa, at lisa@meggin.com at least 3 business days prior to the date my credit card will be charged.
- Individual monthly membership for members is currently just $10.95/month - and I know I will receive weekly content and support; materials to use personally or to share with others, thereby exhibiting my leadership; and invitations to members-only events. As long as I remain a member, with uninterrupted membership, I will continue to pay the same membership fee, regardless of whether dues have increased, for the duration of the Staying Positive Society.
- I know that my membership is not transferrable to another person, although others are welcome to join by going to <http://www.StayingPositiveinaFreakedOutWorld.com>.
